

Join us to discuss market, technology and policy developments that enable autonomy to impact the waterborne sector in EU with the needed modal shift, more efficient and greener waterborne transport.

Date and time:

November 7th, 2023
09:30 – 16:00 CET

Where:

Europort
Rotterdam Ahoy
Dock 14 (2nd floor)

Register here

09:00	09:30	Registration, coffee/tea and light snacks
09:30	09:35	Welcome and introduction : Ørnulf Jan Rødseth (NFAS) The event moderator sets the stage for the day.
09:35	09:50	Keynote speaker 1: Susanne Lanzerstorfer (CINEA) The project officer shares her view on the three research and innovation projects.
09:50	10:05	Keynote speaker 2: Jacob Terling (DG MOVE) Priorities of the European Commission including the role of EC funded research.
10:05	11:15	Session 1: Market developments and business cases.
11:15	11:45	Coffee break with light snacks
11:45	13:00	Session 2: Tech talks – where are we on autonomy?
13:00	14:00	Standing lunch
14:00	15:30	Session 3: Policies for sustainable development of waterborne transport.
15:30	16:00	Future outlook for automated waterborne transport. Nikolaos Ventikos (NTUA, MOSES) Marco Molica Colella (CiaoTech PNO, AUTOSHIP) Odd Erik Mørkrid (SINTEF Ocean, AEGIS)
16:00		Transition to ICMass Reception

These projects have received funding from the European Union's Horizon 2020 research and innovation programme under grant agreements N° 815012, 859992, 861678.